

PRIVACY PRACTICE REVIEW PROGRAM

Your medical office wants to promote a culture of respect for privacy and information security throughout the organization when providing patient care and accessing and disclosing protected health information. To demonstrate and ensure continuing compliance to your privacy goals, a Privacy Review, is an educational and consultative program that serves as a vehicle to identify best practices as well as opportunities for improvement. The Privacy Review is designed to be transparent in order to maximize the opportunity to impart knowledge and effect change. Each review presents an opportunity to give members of your staff the information and tools that they need to protect patient privacy.

Privacy Review Program Goals

1. Promote a culture of respect for patient privacy
2. Monitor and confirm office compliance with key privacy principles
3. Identify and communicate best practices throughout your office
4. Identify and remediate opportunities for improvement
5. Fulfill regulatory obligation and document your good faith effort to comply
6. Look for guidance and educational opportunities
